

Form CRS Client Relationship Summary
The J. Arnold Wealth Management Co., LLC
November 9, 2021

Item 1 – Introduction: Is an investment advisory account right for you?

The J. Arnold Wealth Management Co., LLC is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser. Please be aware that brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Item 2 – What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors. Our principal services include financial planning and portfolio management. As part of our standard portfolio management service we provide continuous and regular supervisory and/or management services with respect to your account(s). We do not monitor the investments made as a result of a financial plan unless you have hired us for portfolio management services. Our portfolio management services are offered on a discretionary basis. Discretionary authorization allows us to determine the specific securities, and the amount of securities, to be purchased or sold for your account without your approval prior to each transaction. We do not limit our advice to proprietary products, or a limited menu of products or types of investments. In general, we require a minimum of $100,000 to establish a relationship with us. At our discretion, we reserve the right to waive this minimum. This minimum can also be waived if a client engages us for a minimum of 4 hours of financial planning services.

For additional information, please refer to Items 4, 7, & 13 of our Form ADV Part 2A and Items 4 and 5 of Form ADV Part 2A Appendix 1 at the following link: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/159710>.

Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional—

- ❖ Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- ❖ How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- ❖ What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 – What fees will I pay?

We are primarily compensated by a percentage of assets under our management, hourly fees and performance based fees. Our fees vary depending on the services you receive. Portfolio management fees are based upon a percentage of your assets under our management, and are payable each month in arrears. For Qualified Clients, we may negotiate a fee based on a combination of a percentage of assets under management and a performance fee. The more assets there are in your advisory account, the more you will pay in fees. Therefore, we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. We provide financial planning services for an hourly fee. Our fees are negotiable depending upon the complexity and scope of the service, your financial situation, and your objectives.

For additional information regarding our fees, please see Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A and Item 4 of Form ADV Part 2A Appendix 1 at the following link: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/159710>

Description of Other Fees and Costs: The fees that you pay to our firm for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by investment companies (e.g., mutual funds, exchange traded funds, unit investment trusts and variable annuities). These fees are described in each fund’s prospectus. These fees will generally include a management fee and other fund expenses. The broker-dealer or custodian may also charge your account for custodial fees, retirement account fees, trust fees, exchange fees, redemption fees that may be assessed on investment company shares, transfer fees, account termination fees or other special service fees and charges. We do not share in any portion of these fees imposed by the broker-dealer or custodian. To fully understand the total cost you will incur, you should review all the fees charged by investment companies, broker-dealers, our firm, and others.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For additional information about fees charged by third parties, please refer to Item 5 of Form ADV Part 2A and Item 4 of Form ADV Part 2A Appendix 1 at the following link: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/159710>

Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional—

- ❖ Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means:

All investment advisers face conflicts of interest which are inherent in the business. Our primary source of compensation is through asset based fees. Therefore, we are incentivized to acquire new clients and to increase assets under management. Other conflicts of interest result from other business activities we engage in and relationships we have with business partners and third parties, or affiliations we have established with other financial institutions.

Performance based fee arrangements create an incentive for us to recommend investments, which may be riskier or more speculative than those, which would be recommended under a different fee arrangement. We mitigate this conflict by selecting investments that we believe to be appropriate for clients in accordance with the firm's investment strategy.

Performance based fee arrangements also create an incentive to offer investments that we believe will be more profitable than others to performance based management fee accounts in order to earn more compensation. However we seek to invest client accounts fairly and equally, thereby mitigating this conflict from influencing the allocation of investment opportunities among clients.

Wrap fee programs may not be suitable for accounts with little or no trading activity. In order to evaluate whether a wrap fee program is suitable for you, you should compare the program fee with the fees that would be charged by other advisers for non-wrap portfolio management services. If you plan to follow a buy and hold strategy for the account or do not wish to use us for ongoing investment advice or management services, you should consider opening a non-wrap portfolio management account or a brokerage account rather than a wrap fee program account.

Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional—

- ❖ How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A and Form ADV Part 2A Appendix 1 for further information on our conflicts of interest and how we address them at the following link: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/159710>.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals receive salary based compensation, a percentage of advisory billings and/or bonuses based on the amount of client assets they bring to our firm. Therefore, our financial professionals have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. Some of our financial professionals are insurance agents. This creates a conflict of interest because these persons will receive additional commission-based compensation in connection with the purchase and sale of insurance. You are not required to purchase insurance or securities from our financial professionals.

Item 4 – Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

Yes. Although our firm does not have a disciplinary record, some of our financial professionals have disciplinary disclosures on their individual regulatory filings.
